FIFTEEN CENTS

Few Show Interest in Sign Code

How many of those signs hanging over Antioch's business district will have to be torn down in three years?

Apparently quite a few if the new sign ordinance is passed by the village board.

But not an awful lot of interest is being shown in the wording of the sign code, which is the result of many, many, many sessions of the village planning commission.

Only 12 persons were in the audience last Thursday, and eight of them were village officials, when the Zoning Board of Appeals held a public hearing on the sign code.

Only one businessman was present - Ray Scarpelli of John Teresi Chevrolet-Olds.

GRANT SPONG, chairman of the zoning board, suggested that "since we don't have a member of the Chamber of Commerce here to say that their body has approved the ordinance, I suggest we defer it until our next meeting and then make our recommendations to the village trustees."

But the board voted 4-2 to dispatch it to the trustees.

They are expected to send it to one of their committees for further consideration.

"A LOT OF businessmen don't realize that three years from now their signs are going to come down," said one village official.

"We can walk through the business district and see 40 or 50 non-conforming signs," said Don Amundsen, a member of the village planning commission. "It's a very strong thing. It's going to take a lot of enforcement and a lot of courage to enforce."

Spong said he hopes all members of the Chamber of Commerce, and businessmen in the community, are aware of the proposed code.

"If the Chamber passed on it as a body, that would have considerable influence on this board," he said.

8 Candidates for Village Trustee

It appears there are eight candidates for the three Antioch village board seats expiring this spring.

All three of the trustees whose terms are expiring are running for re-election. They are J. Irving Walsh, Arnold W. Weber and Margaret A. Nelson.

Walsh and Weber already have filed nomination papers to run on a "People's Party" ticket along with Diane (Willie) Kasik.

Mrs. Nelson has taken out papers as an independent candidate and so has Dr. Robert J. Barnes.

A third group has been circulating papers and calls itself the "Concerned Citizens" party. It includes former mayor Raymond P. Toft, Dale W. Frasch and William G. Carney. All three are members of the Antioch fire department, and so is trustee Walsh.

William Georgeson, owner of the World Famous Village Pub, was circulating nomination papers a week ago but has decided to withdraw from the race.

"Under the circumstances there would have been five firemen running for village trustee," Georgeson said. "So I decided to drop out."

Feb. 10 is the last day for filing petitions. The election will be Apr. 15.

Zoning Board Ponders Youngs' Petition Again

The desire of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Young to rezone their property at 701 North Main Street got another airing before the Antioch Zoning Board last Thursday.

The board decided to delay a final decision until some of its newer members have a chance to see plans and architect's sketches.

The Youngs' attorney, Edward C. Jacobs, said he would deliver them immediately.

Grant Spong, chairman of the zoning board, said his group will meet again, discuss the plans, conclude the matter and give its recommendations to the village trustees.

THE YOUNGS are petitioning to change the zoning of their 3.8 acres from R-2 (single family dwellings) to R-5 (multiple family).

Last May the zoning board mustered a 3-to-2 vote recommending approval, but the village board returned the recommendation explaining that zoning board members had to come up with at least four votes - a majority of the seven-member board.

The property has 132-foot frontage on Main Street and is 850 feet deep.

Jacobs said the present zoning permits only one dwelling and called the 3.8 acres "wasted land."

ME AND MY SHADOW - Antioch's Kevin Walpole had a Cary Grove guard joining him in full flight as he went up for two points in last Friday's 71-56 win. Walpole was named "most valuable player" in the game, which was Antioch's 23rd straight conference victory. (Story and another picture on page 14.)

Flare Tossed On Roof of A&P Store

Three young people were observed throwing a lighted flare onto the roof of the A&P store in the Antioch Shopping Plaza Sunday afternoon.

Although they weren't caught the search for them led to the arrest of three others.

Antioch fireman Ray Gallaher and his son were walking in the Plaza when they saw the flare tossed onto the roof. They

VILLAGE TRUSTEE Mike Haley said the chamber "instigated the document, formally requesting that the village draw up a sign ordinance."

Leaders of the Chamber have seen the ordinance and okayed its wording, Spong was assured.

One member of the zoning board, Ted Burbridge, said the code was "far too comprehensive" and that some of its wording was contradictory.

"It's almost totalitarian," Burbridge said. "It's ridiculous for people not to be able to advertise their products."

Some changes in the wording were made as Burbridge hashed it out with members of the planning commission and Village Attorney Frank Rhode.

IN THEIR petition to the zoning board, the planning commission called the proposed ordinance "a comprehensive amendment ... relative to the construction and maintenance of signs within the corporate limits of the village."

Antioch lacks a sign ordinance and needs one, planners point out. Planning Commission member Lewis Simon, chairman of the committee that wrote the code, said his group waded through sign ordinances from perhaps 15 other communities.

Building Commissioner Walter Delaney probably will administer the code.

Before anyone erects, enlarges, moves or changes a sign, he must obtain a permit

Sign Code

from the administrator.

The administrator will see that signs are maintained and do not endanger public safety.

IN BUSINESS districts there is a limit as to how large a sign can be in relation to the building it adorns.

There also are restrictions on the height and size of free-standing signs.

And the code says that "no sign may project into or over an abutting public right of way."

Certain types of signs will be prohibited. These include "animated or intensely lighted signs," in other words, signs that have "flashing, scintillating, blinking or travelling lights."

The code calls for the removal of signs that advertise a business or service no longer conducted or available on the premises.

"BANNERS, PENNANTS, search lights, twirling signs, sandwich board signs, sidewalk or curb signs, balloons or other gas-filled figures shall not be used on a permanent basis," the code says.

Limits are set on political and campaign signs, and the code says that only "one real estate sign may be placed on any lot." Permanent real estate signs, which are planted on lots for excessive periods of time, will be outlawed.

The proposed sign ordinance is 40 pages long. Members of the planning commission feel it recognizes the need for adequate business identification and advertising, protects the safety and welfare of the public, and provides for attractive appearance while minimizing "clutter."

Young Rezoning

"The land must be made productive," he said. "The community is badly in need of homes in the $20,000 to $30,000 class."

IF THE PROPERTY is rezoned, Jacobs said the Youngs wouldn't accomplish the development themselves, nor would it take place in the near future.

"A development of this type takes a professional developer and a great amount of money," he said.

Young said that if condominiums, townhouses or apartments were built on the land, it might eventually add a maximum of 50 families to the area.

"Townhouses, with four or five dwelling units, costing between $20,000 and $24,000, are selling like hotcakes in Barrington, Mount Prospect and other suburbs," he said. "Young married and elderly people are looking for housing and can't find it."

"I think it's criminal," Jacobs said, "to make the Youngs sit on this land and let it lie dormant. The surrounding area is not blighted," he said, "but it's not the garden spot of the earth."

He said the 3.8 acres are bordered by a factory, a railroad, a park and a medical clinic and "their inherent noises."

He said that plans for the multiple-family dwellings could include buffer zones to "hide" the factory, the railroad and the park.

Conservation Group Meets Saturday

Homer White of Antioch, associate director of the Lake County Soil and Water Conservation District has extended an invitation to conservation-minded people to attend the District's annual meeting and dinner Saturday night at the Farm Bureau in Grayslake. Soil erosion and sediment

The business meeting will include the election of three members to the District Board, and presentation of the "Conservation Teacher of the Year Award" to a Lake County educator.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and the business meeting will begin at 7:30. Dinner tickets are available from the District office at 438-5427.

White said the meeting provides "an excellent opportunity for leaders in the conservation movement to exchange ideas and unify their efforts for the coming year."

Using Force to Get Oil Could Unleash World War

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

BARRY GOLDWATER

In my opinion, it's downright ridiculous to talk about using force against the Arab nations to get the oil supplies we need. Force in the Middle East could unleash World War III, and war is absolutely the last resort of diplomacy.

We don't have to take that risk to get the energy we need. We have many fields in this country that haven't been developed. We have oil fields in Alaska that haven't been touched. We have offshore fields that offer great promise. We have tremendous reserves of coal, a large percentage located in my state of Arizona.

NOT ONLY that, but I believe we are getting very close to breakthroughs in the use of new kinds of energy. When that happens, we'll have all the energy we need and we can tell the Arabs to go take a jump.

This whole matter came up recently during a conversation I had with former New York Mayor John Lindsay on a news show.

Lindsay asked what I thought about Henry Kissinger's statement that we might have to consider using force if the Arab monopoly threatened to strangle the American economy.

TO BEGIN with, I don't think Secretary Kissinger's statement was as stark and rough-sounding as newsmen have reported. In the second place, I don't believe in saber rattling unless you intend to go all the way. And I don't believe in national force of any kind unless you intend to wage an all-out war against the enemy. If the energy crisis ever reaches the point of "strangulation" of the American economy, it has a long way to go.

And we have many weapons - short of force - to use in the meantime.

THE RONALD REAGAN COLUMN

Play Ball With Castro? Let's Tell Him the Rules

There has been a lot of talk lately to the effect that it's "just a matter of time" before the United States "normalizes" its relations with Castro's Cuba.

The idea got its first big push last fall when two U.S. senators - one a Democrat, the other a Republican - took off for Havana with a bevy of newsmen in tow, but without approval from the State Department.

The United States hasn't had diplomatic relations with Cuba for some 15 years, but the senators thought they would engage in a bit of suave personal diplomacy to see if Fidel Castro had softened up any.

What they were treated to was the most vitriolic harangue against the United States that the Cuban premier has mustered in several years. It lasted for more than an hour. Far from sizzling the ears of the senators, the visitors sat down to dinner and small talk with Castro afterward.

AT ABOUT that time, a privately endowed group of former U.S. government officials and scholars, the Commission on U.S.-Latin American Relations, sent the President a 54-page report urging a lifting of the 10-year-old embargo on trade with Cuba. Along with it has come a steady drumbeat of like-minded newspaper and magazine articles.

Why the concerted campaign to open trade and diplomatic relations with the Cuban dictator whose people have lived, since 1959, in poverty?

Surely, the yearning for Havana cigars can't be that great on the part of a few congressmen and liberal scholars.

THE RATIONALE appears to be that there is nothing to be gained, in terms of this nation's interests, in continuing the isolation of Castro's Communist island. Therefore, the argument goes, we should be gentle and less hostile with the bearded revolutionary.

Very little has been said of what we should expect from Castro in exchange for a lifting of the embargo of the Organization of American States (OAS) and for recognition by the United States.

At the November meeting of the OAS, the United States abstained from voting on a resolution to lift the trade embargo on Cuba. The resolution didn't get the two-thirds vote required, but it came close.

BEFORE WE change our position, the United States should demand satisfactory answers from Castro to these questions:

What will he do about Soviet military bases on the island? We should settle for nothing less than their removal.

What will he do to assure the other nations of the Western Hemisphere that he will no longer train, equip and support Communist guerrillas in other American states? Perhaps a free and open inspection program in Cuba by OAS monitors could provide the solution.

What will Castro do about settling the $1.5 billion worth of claims by U.S. citizens whose property his government seized?

What will he do to assure former Cubans, now U.S. citizens, of the freedom to visit Cuba unhindered and without harassment?

What will he do to guarantee the restoration of individual freedoms to the people of Cuba? He may argue that this interferes with the internal affairs of his country, but he's never hesitated to interfere with the internal affairs of other Latin American nations, and not on the side of individual liberty, either.

INSTEAD OF U.S. senators making fools of themselves, and instead of self-appointed study groups suggesting we hand Castro what he wants, let's do some good old-fashioned American bargaining. In the process, we might be able to bargain the bombastic dictator into restoring liberty to his people. They need it.

COMMENTS...

No More, Please

Before opting for more government planning to solve U.S. economic problems, consider how the world's big planners fare.

East Germany, the most successful of all communist nations in terms of providing adequately for the material needs of its people, is still a miserable failure by Western standards.

East German per capita income is just a little more than half that of the people of West Germany. Sixty percent of the families in East Germany have no private baths; one in 10 has central heating and only one in six a telephone.

Compared to U.S. living standards, those in East Germany can only be described as rudimentary in the extreme. Still, everything is relative. U.S. News & World Report quotes one East German engineer who observed, "It's obvious that West Germans are better off than we are. But, compared with ours, the economies of most communist countries in Eastern Europe are primitive...."

How about it - want to try a little more state planning in the good old USA?

Necessary Evil

We, like so many Americans, hate to see the millions and millions of dollars being spent by Congress for guns and tanks and ships and other war-making equipment but it's pretty evident if we don't have a giant capacity along those lines we'll be a part of a Chinese or Russian five-year plan sometime in the future.

According to a long lost statistic from the Internal Revenue Service, 50 percent of Americans file their income tax - the other 50 percent chisel it."

Antioch Man Dies in Crash

A 56-year-old Antioch man, Harold F. Barski, was killed early last Thursday when his automobile hit a utility pole on Rt. 59, north of Beach Grove Rd.

Mr. Barski, of 10 Henning Ct., was killed only about two blocks from his home.

He was taken to a Waukegan hospital by the Antioch Rescue Squad but was dead on arrival.

Sheriff's deputies said Mr. Barski was driving south on Rt. 59 when his car went out of control. He was pinned in the car and rescue squad members worked for about 45 minutes before they were able to free him from behind the steering wheel.

Mr. Barski had lived in the Antioch area for 23 years. He was employed at the Hough International Harvester Plant.

He is survived by his widow, Lorraine; three daughters, including Mrs. Roger (Joan) Stahl of Antioch, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday at the Barr Funeral Home Colonial Chapel.

74 Real Estate Tax Bills In Mail End Of January

Under a plan adopted by the Lake County Board, the taxpayers of Lake County will be receiving a bill for the first installment of the 1974 real estate taxes based upon 50 percent of their 1973 bill, the last week in January. This bill will have a penalty date of March 3, 1975. After that a penalty of 1 percent per month will be added.

Under chapter 120 Sec. 705 of the Illinois Revised Statutes Cook County had to begin this procedure which is commonly called the accelerated tax collection method, with the billing of the 1973 taxes. In all other counties in Illinois the decision as to whether or not this procedure was to be followed was left up to the County Board. In September of 1974 the Lake County Board voted to adopt this method with the billing of the 1974 taxes.

Though it now appears that many board members would like to return to the method used in the past, it is too late to change the 1974 billing. Any action taken by the Board at this time could only effect the 1975 tax payable in 1976.

According to the statute the second installment billing, under this new procedure, will be at the end of June with an Aug. 1 penalty date. This billing will indicate the actual balance due on the 1974 tax, and will not necessarily be equal to the amount of the first installment. Any changes in assessment, exemptions, homestead etc., will be reflected in the second installment billing.

Both first and second installment bills may be paid at any one of thirty three Lake County Banks, by mail to the Treasurer's office, or in person at the County Building.

THE OLD FARMER'S ALMANAC

FEB. 3-9, 1975

Think of the violets under the snow.

Go tobogganing now for the most fun you'll have this month ... Vessel Normandie caught fire then capsized Feb. 9-10, 1942 ... Last quarter of the moon Feb. 3 ... Northern thunder now, as strange as it seems, means fine fall crops ... Average length of days for the week 10 hours, 10 minutes ... Price of sperm whale oil in New Bedford, Mass. soared to $1.30 per gallon Feb. 9, 1857 ... 200-400 fireballs just missed NYC Feb. 9, 1913 ... Ease makes for a poor conscience if it be not well-earned.

Old Farmer's Riddle: Why didn't the ghost want to go fishing? (Answer below.)

Ask the Old Farmer: Years ago people maintained that "oak apples" forecast weather. What are oak apples and how do they forecast the weather? F. B., Lincoln, Nebraska.

An oak apple is what tree folks call a "gall" that grows on a leaf after a fly has stung it. It's green to begin with and grows a little larger than a horse chestnut. After a while it turns brown and the inside is full of brown powdery junk. Old timers used to soak them in vinegar to make ink, and all kinds of folks figure that their size, color, heft, and so-on, indicate the kind of winter to come.

Home Hints: To make the job of varnishing easier, place the container of varnish in a pan of hot water. The varnish flows on easier and dries faster ... Riddle answer: He liked to go haunting instead.

The Town Crier

We have decided that, henceforth, no events should be scheduled between 8 and 9 o'clock on Saturday nights.

During that hour everyone should stay home and watch television. Specifically, the Mary Tyler Moore show and the Bob Newhart show.

In our opinion they provide 60 of the week's most delightful minutes.

We recently filled out a questionnaire that asked us to name our favorite television actor and actress.

After much thought, we decided they had to be Bob Newhart and Suzanne Pleshette.

But some of those on the Mary Tyler Moore show aren't far behind - especially that fellow who plays the part of Lou Grant. Who are your favorites?

IT HAD NEVER occurred to us, but lately we have been looking more critically whenever we pass a Holiday Inn sign.

'Holiday Inns' have the ugliest signs I have ever seen," professional planner Bruce

He added that "Holiday Inns and McDonald restaurants have sprouted up where communities haven't wanted them."

Very interesting.

THOSE ARTICLES in other newspapers weren't fair last week when they reported that the Lake County Health Department had inspected Antioch restaurants and found that some could have their licenses repealed if health hazards are not corrected.

We attended the same village board meeting and wouldn't print the report because no names were mentioned.

That kind of news indicts all Antioch restaurants. We eat in several of them and they are clean and the food is excellent.

Let's not say that "some Antioch restaurants have health hazards" unless we're willing to specify which ones, if any.

GOSH, BITS 'N' Pieces Carpeting didn't last long in Antioch, did it?

Opened last summer and closed already.

Hear it had something to do with that big sign they put on their building. Didn't comply with village specifications.

But there must have been other reasons, too, for the sudden departure.

It was, certainly, a brief stay as an Antioch business.

Oh well, here today ... gone tomorrow.

Christensen told Antioch village officials at a recent meeting.

"THE FRIENDLY ONES"

Group Declares War On Flooding, Pollution

Forty people showed up at the McHenry city hall last Friday, united in their plans to fight flooding and pollution problems in area lakes and rivers.

The occasion was a meeting of the Chain O'Lakes-Fox River Commission. The eight members of that group who were present voted to spend up to $120,000 with the engineering and planning firm of John Guillou of Springfield, former chief of the Illinois Division of Waterways.

The other 32 were in the audience, representing various communities and conservation groups.

Guillou's firm will prepare a

NEXT MEETING IN FOX LAKE

report on ways to attack the problems in the Chain O'Lakes and the Fox River in Lake, McHenry and Kane counties.

THE COMMISSION of legislators and laymen has appointed William E. Brook of Antioch, a chairman. Other members include State Rep. Don Deuster, R-Mundelein; State Sen. Jack Schaffer, R-Cary; Rep. John Matijevich, D-North Chicago; William Bolger of McHenry, and Mrs. Rita Zeleny of Highland Park.

The commission hired John Jerry Murphy as its executive director on a part-time basis. Murphy already has done work for the commission and has background in governmental relations.

THE GROUP scheduled its next meeting for Friday, Feb. 21, at 1:30 p.m. in the Fox Lake village hall.

Guillou said he hopes to have the first phase of his job completed by Mar. 1 so that detailed proposals for further funding of the commission can be considered by the Illinois General Assembly prior to the fiscal year beginning July 1.

The commission plans to appoint a citizens committee, composed of somewhere between eight and 15 members, so that all interested groups can be heard from.

Commission members emphasized that they want to avoid duplication in flooding and pollution studies which might be carried on by various municipal and conservation groups.

CAPT. JAMES Van Epps of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers came out of the audience to report that the corps has $80,000 to spend on a study of ways to attack the flooding and pollution problems.

"We have to coordinate with the state of Wisconsin," Van Epps said. "Our plan will try to develop an inventory of the problems of the entire river basin. If dredging should take place, where should it take place?"

Van Epps said his corps had no timetable when Deuster asked for one.

"We decided it would be years before the federal government did anything," Deuster said. "We decided not to wait for federal funds."

Deuster said that "the corps ought to advise us what federal funds might be forthcoming, and in what areas, once our preliminary studies are completed."

Matijevich said that "although our first priority was flooding, we decided to try to fishermen, boaters and residents."

A PISTAKEE Lake resident told the commission that the "algae in his area were so bad that people almost had to move out."

"Long Lake is having a helluva problem," he said "with the dumping of effluent in there."

A report on the commission's work so far will be delivered to every member of the state House and Senate.

Some communities in the area reported they are working on flood plain ordinances.

"It's too bad we didn't have flood plain ordinances 50 years ago," Brook said. "We wouldn't have some of our present problems."

DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL ABC's of Travel

By BARB CORBIN

Sharp pencil, much patience, many phone calls - lowest fare (maybe). The confusing airfare picture becomes more muddled daily, I know. On the domestic scene, the airlines, ended up with a 19 percent increase in fares over 1973 and are now trying to outdo themselves in pushing a confusing array of lower-cost and discount fares. Regular first class, regular coach fares, economy (no meals), night coach (flights after 9 p.m.) and standby fares (certain destinations on night flights). For a while airlines without lounges could knock off $5.00 on a normal coach fare between Chicago and Los Angeles. If you are not completely befuddled by now remember not all airlines offer all of these options. Some are offering their own versions (midweek fare) under different names. Trying to find the lowest fare, or even the right fare, in this jungle of bewildering rate tables will take another Solomon and unfortunately there are few around.

As an example of the costs, and savings possible with the various fares consider this example. The regular coach fare from Chicago to Los Angeles is $146. If you buy an economy (no meal) ticket the fare drops to $131. If you go night coach you save even more for the cost is only $116. The biggest saving of all is earned by going to the airport and standing by for a vacant seat on a night flight. That will cost you $104. If you don't care, first class is $189.

As if the confusing rate structure wasn't enough to discourage potential air travelers, the airlines are now using their fare increases to tempt passengers by offering such amenities as free cocktails for tourist class passengers (National and Eastern), free steak and champagne dinners for economy passengers (Delta), first class leg room for coach travelers (Western).

Your only solution is to check with your local travel agent and ask for the cheapest fare for he is the expert. This is especially true if you are planning a flight

2 More Wins For Wrestlers

Antioch's wrestling Sequoits ran their season record to 13-4 last weekend with wins over McHenry, 37-19, and Cary Grove, 37-18.

Seniors Dennis Thain and Bill Hogan scored pins against their McHenry foes as Antioch took an early 26-4 lead. Bob Gossman, a sophomore, won a decision at 98 pounds and John Davis wrestled to a 4-4 draw with his rival, who has lost only one match this season.

Brian Parpan and Greg Nordstrom triumphed and sophomore Don Traska earned a tie. Antioch's final win came from heavyweight Mike Weber, who pinned his foe in five minutes.

Against Cary Grove, Gossman started off with a pin. Parpan won at 112 pounds and Nordstrom racked up a 12-0 decision.

Thain won at 132 pounds, then Dick Kessler scored his first varsity win at 167 pounds.

Antioch now has a 6-1 record in the conference and has two dual meets remaining. Stevenson visits Antioch Friday at 6:45 p.m. and Warren drops in Saturday at 1 p.m.

Soph Wrestlers Are 15-0 Now

Antioch High's sophomore wrestlers remained unbeaten last weekend, flattening the Cary Grove Trojans 47-9 and escaping with a 26-25 win over Waukegan.

The future Sequoits are now 7-0 in their conference and 15-0 for the season.

Against Cary Grove, Antioch enjoyed pins by Bill Harland and Geoff Nordstrom. Scoring one-sided decisions over their rivals were Rich Whitton, Don Traska, Pat Conway, Dan DiGiovanni and Gary DiSilvestro.

Saturday's win over Waukegan was especially sweet since that team came into the meet with an 8-0 record.

Scoring key wins early in the meet were Antioch's Bob Gossman, Matt Ring and Don Traska.

DiGiovanni continued to improve at 145 pounds, winning 13-5, and Antioch led team scoring by 17-8. Then Waukegan stormed back with 17 points to go ahead 25-20.

With one match left, Antioch's sophomore heavyweight, Bob DuCato, pinned his foe to give his team the 26-25 victory.

The sophs end their dual meet season this weekend with home matches. Stevenson is here Friday at 6:45 p.m. and Warren arrives Saturday at 1 p.m.

7-0 Mark

The Faith Lutheran Lakers have taken the lead in the Lakes Lutheran Basketball Conference with a 7-0 record.

They have beaten teams from Kenosha, Burlington, Waukegan and Zion, including a 77-20 win over St. Luke's of Kenosha and a 77-13 victory over Immanuel of Waukegan.

Mike Lischewski leads the Lakers with a 29.6 average and has a high game of 42 points. John Lundgren is averaging 16.4 points a game.

Others in the starting lineup are Rick Lubkeman, Jeff Schleusener and James Franke.

Their next game is in Kenosha on Friday, Feb. 7.

Super-Duper Plans Made For Ice Fishing Derby

By HARRY STERN

The 15th annual, biggest and richest Ice Fishing Derby and Winter Festival in the State of Illinois, sponsored by Antioch's 885 Civic Club and the Northern Illinois Conservation Club, will take place on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 15 and 16, on the south end of Channel Lake.

The site is off Rt. 173, three miles west of Antioch.

More than $6,000 in prizes are already in at derby headquarters, and the total could reach $7,500 as prizes keep coming in from the various donors.

TOP PRIZE is a Mercury Snowmobile, followed by a Las Vegas trip for two; Little Dude Double Trailer; Portable Color TV; Johnson Outboard Motor; 10-speed bicycle; his and hers snowmobile suits; Charming Gas Grill. Several hundred other prizes will also be presented.

A feature of the two-day festival will be sled dog races, under the auspices of the Midwest Sled Dog Club.

Some of the teams of dogs will be driven by women, and some by children. All will vie for trophies and cash awards. Races will start at 10 a.m. on both days.

Three breeds of dogs -- huskies, malamutes, and Alaskans -- will make up the teams. Races will start and finish in front of the headquarters building on the Channel Lake ice, adjacent to "Mr. Wonderful's" Resort.

Weight pulling contests for single dogs of any breed are also on the program.

LUCKY FISHERMEN will win prizes for catching northern pike, walleye pike, black bass, striped bass, bluegills, sunfish, crappies, perch, catfish and bullheads.

The largest of each of these landed every hour will win a prize, as will the largest of each species each day, and then the largest of the derby. There also will be a prize for the oddest fish caught each day.

A first at this derby will be the release of tagged northern pike, bass, bluegills and crappies and special prizes will be given to fishermen who catch them, starting on derby day.

Prizes will also be given to catchers of these tagged fish any time after the derby ends (no time limit) by bringing the tag to William E. Brook at the State Bank of Antioch.

OTHER EVENTS include men's and ladies hole-making contests with auger; mens chisel contests; ladies and children's fishing contests in the newly-made holes; and men's, ladies, boys and girls sack races.

An egg tossing contest for men and women should provide some laughs, too.

Small children will try to outthrust each other in retrieving 2,500 pennies out of a pile of straw on the ice. Watchers will augment this with nickels, dimes and quarters out of their own pockets to keep the fun going. Kids can keep all the money they pick up.

A PRIZE will be awarded for the most colorful fishing shanty on the ice, and also for the best shanty. The oldest licensed lady each receive a prize. Awards will be made for guessing how many live minnows are swimming in a large jar, and for guessing the weight of a cake of ice.

Some 200 prizes will be given to "dry-hole" fishermen who fail to catch a fish. A derby official will be prowling the Channel Lake ice all day long searching out the unlucky piscators. Their luck will change immediately as they are informed that they have won a "Prize For Not Catching A Fish."

The derby starts at 9 a.m. with the first fish judging at 10 a.m. and every hour the rest of the day, closing at 4 p.m.

Rules for all fishing contests will be posted on the ice.

Main entrance to the lake and derby site is through "Mr. Wonderful's Resort," where there are acres of supervised free parking. The resort is off of Lake Ave. on the west side of Channel Lake, about a quarter mile north of Rt. 173. There will be other supervised free parking lots around the area.

A warm headquarters building will be set up on the ice, as well as a snack-shack, where hot sandwiches and refreshments will be served.

Burning salamanders will be spotted on the ice to warm up contestants, spectators and kibitzers.

called police, then Gallaher and other firemen rushed a truck to the building. Once on the roof they noticed that the flare had not started a fire.

Meanwhile police were searching for the suspects and noticed three young persons in a car in a nearby parking lot.

Inside the car they saw a knife and further investigation uncovered a BB-gun and a large quantity of BB's.

Although they had not participated in the flare-tossing incident, the two young men, ages 19 and 20, and from Crystal Lake; and the juvenile female, who turned out to be a runaway from the city of McHenry, were taken into custody.

They were turned over to McHenry authorities on a charge of criminal damage in Richmond, where one of the youths allegedly shattered a car window with BB's.

Only a week earlier there had been a rash of window breakings with BB or pellet guns in Antioch and Lake Villa. Police have been on the lookout for the vandals.

Sequoits Face 2nd and 3rd Place Teams

In its quest for another Northwest Suburban Conference championship, Antioch High School's basketball team is now concentrating on its chief rivals.

The Sequoits disposed of Cary Grove 71-56 last Friday and now face another third-place team, Stevenson's Patriots.

The game will be played Friday, 8:15 p.m., at Stevenson. Antioch enters with a 7-0 record while Stevenson is 4-3, and fresh from last Friday's 58-52 victory over Woodstock.

If the Sequoits get past Stevenson, they can start thinking about the conference's "game of the year" -- a Friday, Feb. 7, date at Warren. The Blue Devils of Warren are in second place with a 6-1 record.

COACH ROGER Andrews' Antioch lads still have the best record in Lake County -- 15 wins, only 3 losses, and an average of 70 points a game while holding their rivals to an average of 53.

At Stevenson, Friday, the Sequoits will have to consider the Patriots' star guard, Kirk Fleischman, who threw in 23 points against Woodstock last week.

In the win over Cary Grove, Antioch had balanced scoring from Scott Kimball, who scored 20; Mike Perrone, 18, and Russ Albano, 16.

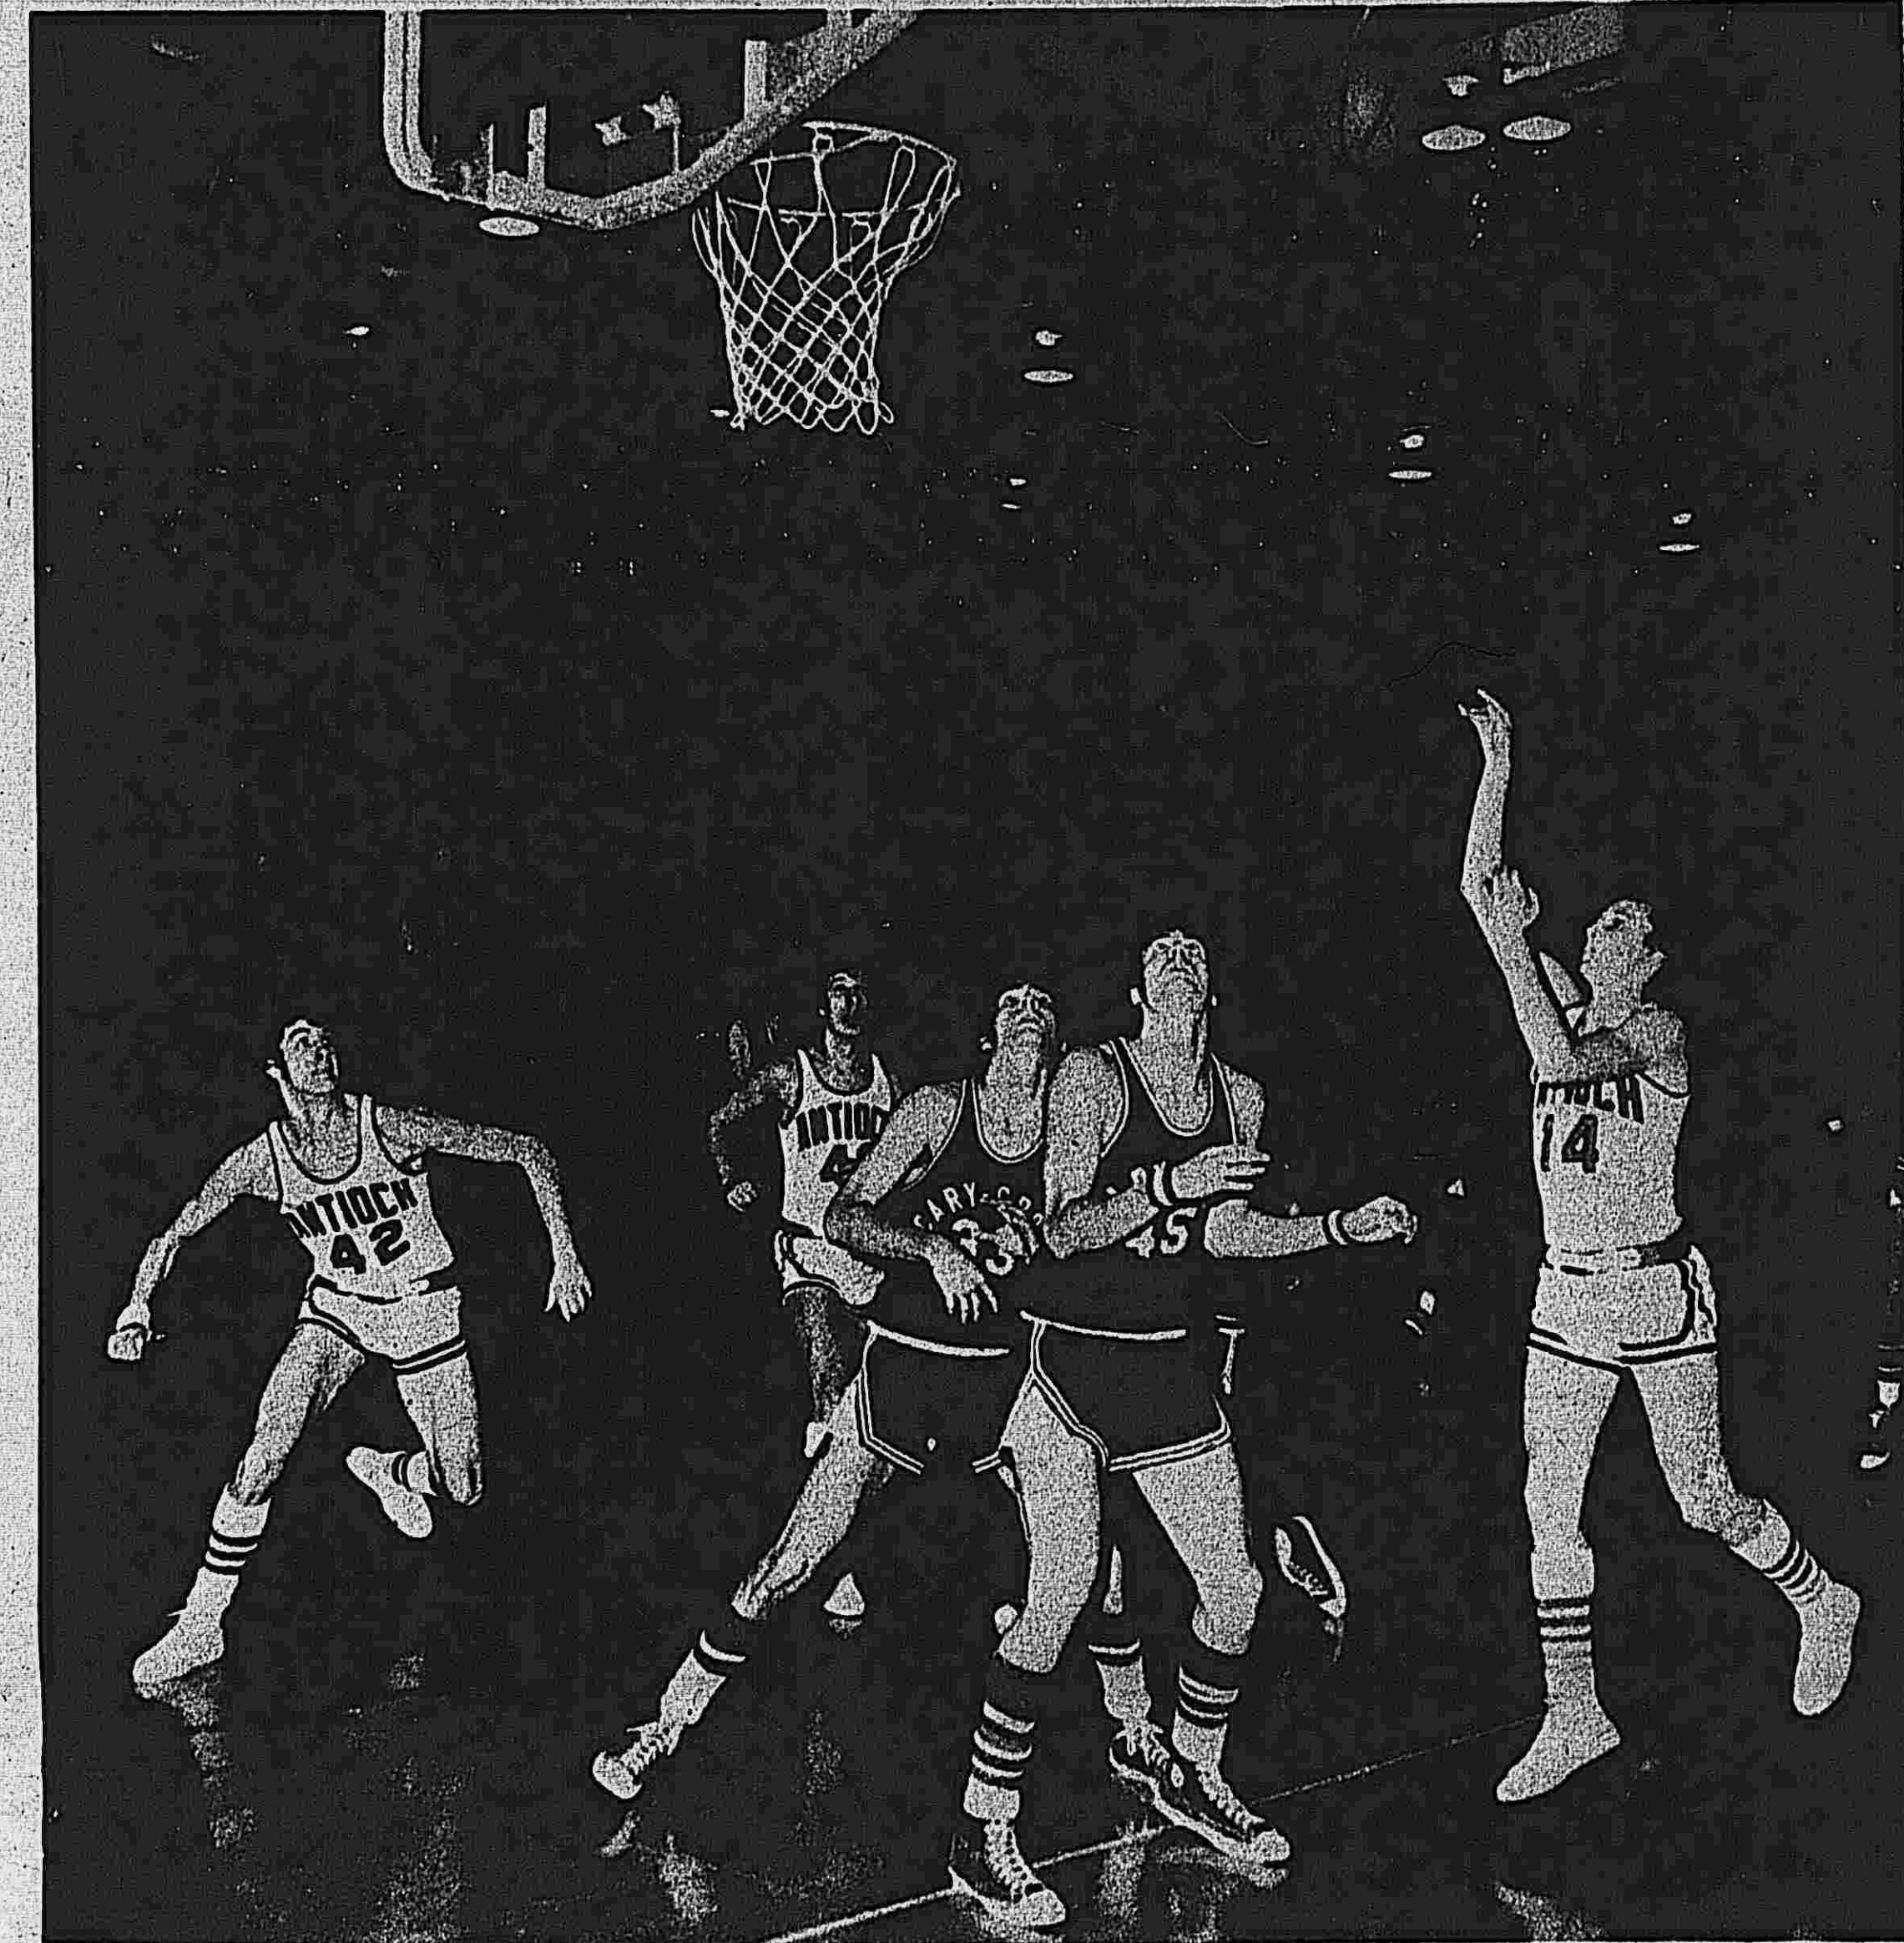

"Kimball did a nice job rebounding on both boards," Andrews said.

But they voted the "most valuable player" award to guard Kevin Walpole, who had nine assists.

"Kevin played errorless ball for the third game in a row," said Coach Andrews. "And he did a good job on defense." He won the trophy given after each home game by the Four Squires clothing store.

CARY GROVE made a contest out of it in the first half, trailing by only 33-31. But Antioch outscored the visitors 10-2 at the start of the third quarter and held a comfortable lead the rest of the way.

"They were a little stubborn and we had trouble putting them away," Andrews said. "Our inability to hit on the 16-footers from around the free throw circle really hurt us. That slowed us down or we would have broken the game wide open."

Yet, Andrews said he is "real proud and real pleased" with his team. The Sequoits have now won five straight and have a string of 23 conference victories. The league record of 25 was set by Barrington and that will be tied by the Sequoits if they beat Stevenson and Warren in their next two games.

Girl, 10, Wins Basketball Contest

A 10-year-old girl, Caroline Kreulach, won the Antioch News basketball contest last week.

We'll be sending her the first prize check of $15.

On the advice of her 13-year-old sister, Paulette, Caroline guessed that Antioch would beat Cary Grove by 15 points.

Antioch won 71-56.

Paulette was a good person to ask. She had placed fourth in the contest a week earlier.

THERE WERE many, many entries in the contest again. Because Antioch has been winning by such big scores, many of them picked the Sequoits to win by 20, 30 or 40.

Alice Johnson, who twice won the football contest last fall, also said 15 points. But she picked Cary Grove to win the sophomore game (the tie-breaker) while Caroline accurately picked Antioch.

So Alice gets second prize this week -- a $10 savings account at the First National Bank of Antioch.

There also was a tie for third place. Kathleen Hofmann and Tim Huebner both said Antioch would beat Cary Grove by 16 points. But Kathleen came closer in forecasting the sophomore game, so she wins third prize -- a $5 gift certificate at Stanley's Men's Fashions in the Antioch Shopping Plaza.

ANOTHER BASKETBALL contest appears in today's issue of the Antioch News.

The "Game of the week" is Friday night's varsity contest between Antioch and Stevenson. The sophomore game that night will be the tie-breaker.

First prize is $15, second prize is a $10 gift certificate at A&B Printing and third prize is a $5 gift certificate at the Four Squires clothing store.

More entries are pouring in each week, but you have as good a chance as anyone to forecast the outcome.

If in doubt, ask your sister.

Those who complain about the way the ball bounces are usually the ones who dropped it.

FOLLOWING ARE won-lost records of Northwest Suburban Conference teams:

Antioch 7-0, Warren 6-1, Cary Grove 4-3, Grant 4-3, Stevenson 4-3.

Also: Round Lake 3-4, Wauconda 3-4, Grayslake 2-5, Woodstock 2-5, Lake Zurich 0-7.

HERE'S HOW the other teams fared last Friday night:

Grant 64, Grayslake 48.

Warren 59, Round Lake 49.

Wauconda 54, Lake Zurich 45.

Stevenson 58, Woodstock 52.

4-H Leaders

All Lake County 4-H adult leaders are invited to attend the annual Leader Recognition dinner on Friday, Feb. 7 at 6 p.m. at the Lake County Fair Grounds.

Jack Taylor, anchorman for W.G.N. television, will be the guest speaker.

Snowmobiles Race at Grayslake

Two days of snowmobile racing are scheduled this weekend at the Lake County Fairgrounds in Grayslake and the feature event will be a $500 "Gold Cup" race sponsored by the State Bank of Antioch.

Racing begins at 11 a.m. on both Saturday and Sunday. Ted Nielsen of Lake Villa will be one of many area racers competing.

The schedule of races appears in the advertisement of page 3 of this newspaper.

Many of the country's top professional drivers are expected to participate in this 1st annual "Winter Oval Championship" sponsored by Teva Productions of Lake Villa.

Frosh Lose in 4 Overtimes!

Antioch's freshman basketball team suffered their first conference loss last week, a 47-44 overtime decision to Grayslake. Actually the game wasn't settled until four overtimes were played.

Then the Sequoit frosh rebounded with a 49-36 win over Cary Grove.

Antioch's conference record now stands at 6-1 and the overall mark is 7-3.

At Grayslake the game ended in a 40-40 tie. Since three Antioch starters had fouled out, Coach Norm Hahn decided to stall in the overtime and try for a final shot or get fouled. But the strategy failed despite a gallant try during the extra 12 minutes of play.

Tim Huebner led Antioch scoring with 17 points.

Against Cary Grove the local frosh jumped to a quick lead and were never threatened. They dominated the boards and all five starters scored well. Tim Huebner and John Eder led with 11 points each.

The Antioch "B" team also split last week, trimming Grayslake 63-29 and losing to Cary Grove 20-18. John Vojtech and Chris Ano each scored 15 points against Grayslake.

Sophs Show Improvement

Antioch's sophomore basketball team collected its second conference win Friday, 64 to 55 over visiting Cary Grove. Antioch is now 2 and 5 in conference play while Cary Grove is 3 and 4.

The Antioch Sophs jumped to an early lead and never trailed although Cary tied the game several times.

Antioch shot 55 percent from the field, hit on 12 of 20 free throws and out-rebounded the taller Cary team.

"It was a fine team effort and the best game of the season for the Sophs," coaches said.

Tracy Sodman led the team with 21 points and 12 rebounds. Don Norwick hit for 17 points and 6 rebounds. Pat Houghton added 13 points. Mark Stewart scored 8 and pulled down 7 rebounds, and Brian Andrews rounded out the scoring with 5 points.

Antioch travels to Stevenson this Friday to play the league-leading sophomore team. Game time is 6:45 p.m.

A FIRST FOR HEYNE -- Visiting the Virgin Islands, outdoor sportsman Norm Heyne enjoyed deep-sea fishing in the waters where 18 world records have been established and came up with his first sailfish, which weighed 46 pounds and measured 89 inches. Mate "Pike" Herbert helps Heyne display the catch. Heyne, of Antioch, hosts a Chicago television program, "The Outdoor Sportsman."

PUBLICITY
MONDAY

Because so many clubs and organizations are submitting publicity releases on Monday afternoons and Tuesday mornings, the Antioch News is having trouble squeezing all of the information into the newspaper. So once again we must strictly enforce our deadline of Monday noon for publicity releases. And, for best results, it would help if you got them to us on the previous Friday. Thanks for your cooperation.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Lots of flu bugs and strep throat in Antioch this week. Sure hope everyone gets back on their feet quick.

Congrats to Tim Paul who was chosen at "Father of the Day" as a result of his daughter Nancy's essay at the St. Peter's Pop's Day. I bet lots of the moms had a few aches and pains the next day after their terrific job of cheerleading.

Expanda Foam and Frostee Foam office employees and spouses spent a super weekend combining work and pleasure in Elkhorn, Wis. Apparently there is some snow up there and they were able to get in some snowmobiling fun, too.

Condolences to the family of Anna Nader.

GET YOUR thinking caps on - nominations for the St. Peter V.I.P. must be in to the Rectory by Feb. 7. The date of the dance has been changed to Mar. 22 in order to assure everyone of some super scrumptious food cooked by Mary Wells. Be sure to set aside the evening in your calendar now.

Hear tell the firemen triumphed 10-0 over the Jaycees in an exciting game of Donkey Basketball last week. Scottie Lowe was top scorer with 4 points. Wonder if Dale Frasch walked around with a pillow to sit on? Seems his donkey wasn't too cooperative. Should've stayed on your toy donkey. Wonder how many aspirin Roman Vos needed the next day. Seems his donkey was a little slippery too. I'm sure the firemen will enjoy the half-barrel of beer they won for their efforts.

The Lake County Lakers will be playing at the Waukegan Armory at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday. Admission is free. Former Antioch lettermen, Mike Gutowski and Vic McGuire, are doing their usual good job.

Belated anniversary wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Forbrich who celebrated 40 years of wedded bliss last Sunday.

Special greetings to Diana Rentner who will be 18 on Jan. 30. Happy birthday honey, hope you have a real special day.

Birthday greetings to Barb Madden, Mark Haley and Wanda Oftedahl on the 29th, to Rhett Bobzien on the 30th and to Kathy Anderson on the 31st. Celebrating in February are Ryan Tomaschik on the 1st, Jackie Vos on the 2nd, Diane Pocrnich, Tina Frook and Belinda Dittman on the 3rd and Helen Murrie on the 4th.

Anniversary greetings to Pat and Bill Herbert who celebrate on Jan. 31.

A speedy recovery to Robert Bunker in McHenry hospital who was injured in a snowmobile accident on Fox Lake a couple of weeks ago. His right leg was very badly broken and he will remain in a cast for sometime. I'm sure he'd appreciate hearing from friends.

ONE THING good about this winter is that the kids are able to get out and skate on the ice ponds in town. Even though we've been light on snow, they're sure having a good time playing hockey.

The girls basketball team looks better every week. There's one problem though, us mothers are getting bleacher burn from running from game to game. Keep up the good play, gals.

TOO BAD WE'RE not in the cleaning business - lots of coats and pants came in this week. We're working on a new sign.

See ya,
Annie Mae
